Doing Life Together

Acts
20:20

You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house.

1 Cor
16:19

The churches in the province of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Priscilla greet you warmly in the Lord, and so does the church that meets at their house.

Col
4:15

Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters at Laodicea, and to Nympha
and the church in her house.

Reimagining Church

... institutional churches in the United States alone own over $230 billion worth of real estate. And much of that money is borrowed (debt). Christians give between $9 and $11 billion a year on church buildings. ... Winston Churchill wisely said, “First we shape our buildings. Thereafter, they shape us.” ... The interior structure of the building is not designed for interpersonal communication, mutual ministry, or spiritual fellowship. Instead, it’s designed for a rigid one-way communication—pulpit to pew, leader to congregation.

Reimagining Church

The notion of a sermon-focused, pulpit-to-pew, audience-styled “church service” was alien to the early Christians. Today, the weekly “church service” is designed for worship, the hearing of a sermon, and in some cases, evangelism. But in the first-century church, the governing purpose of the church meeting was quite different. The purpose was mutual edification.

1 Cor
14:26

What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up.

Hebrews
10:24-25

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Col
3:16

Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts.

Reimagining Church

... the only sustaining force of the early church gathering was the life of the Holy Spirit. ... Thus if the spiritual life of the church was at a low ebb, everyone would notice it in the gathering. They couldn't overlook the cold chill of silence.

Eph
4:11-16

So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown

Eph
4:11-16

here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Ministering to one another (mutual edification) is how we reach spiritual maturity both individually and as a community.

Acts
2:46

Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts
