

"Loving Your Neighbor" May 10, 2020

1. Are there ways in which this COVID-19 pandemic has heightened your sense of self-preservation and has made you more self-focused?
2. Who are the "neighbors" that you show love to? Who doesn't fit in this category?
3. Can you think of a time when you chose not to get involved with someone in need because you worried things would get too messy with no clear end point to helping them?
4. How can we become more like the Good Samaritan?
5. What are some practical ways that you can show love to your neighbor during this pandemic?
